The Freedom of Information Act, which came into force on 1 January 2005, gives everyone a statutory right of access to information held by bodies such as the Parish Council.

Please be sure to include your name and a valid postal address, as required under the Act, and a clear description of the information you are seeking. When making a request you are allowed state your preference of how you wish the information to be communicated to you. This could be by providing a hard copy, or an electronic copy of the information, providing you with an opportunity to inspect a record containing the information or providing a digest or summary of the information. We will try to meet your preference as far as is reasonably practical, or notify you if we cannot do so. Responding to your request we will inform you in writing whether we hold the information you have requested and if so, provide it to you not later than 20 working days after we receive the request.

The Freedom of Information Act does identify a number of categories of information which the Parish Council is not required to disclose under the Act. In this case, we will write to you stating the exemption which provides the basis for refusal to disclose within the Act and why it applies to the information you requested. We will communicate this to you within the 20 working day time period.

Charges

Where the Council provides information under the Freedom of Information Act, there is no 'flat rate' fee to receive information and in many cases we will provide the information to you free of charge. However, you should note that if the information you are seeking is not readily available in the form in which you are seeking it, the Parish Council may charge you a fee based on the costs associated with providing the information, for example photocopying and postage (known as 'disbursements').

The Freedom of Information Act does permit the Parish Council to refuse your request if we estimate that it will cost us in excess of the appropriate cost limit (currently £450) to fulfil your request.

Freedom of Information Fees Notice

If you are required to pay a fee for disbursements or the costs exceed the appropriate limit, we will write to you advising you of the fee required within 20 working days of receipt of your request. This is known as a 'Fees Notice'. When you are issued with the Fees Notice, the 20 working day limit for responding stops, and then will start again when we receive payment. If we do not receive the fee from you within three months we are not obliged to comply with the request.
